What is a Reflective Essay?

A reflective essay is an important academic essay that describes an experience or an event. It then analyzes the meaning of that experience and event and what you have learned from it. What attributes an essay to reflectiveness is that the author is describing the past experience from the present.

Following the most common subjects, a reflective essay includes:

A real-life experience

Something that you have imagined

A place or object

Something you have watched, read, seen, smelled, tasted, or heard.
