AL BARAQ STEEL WORKS LLC

ABOUT US

Al Baraq Steel Works L.L.C. was established on March 29, 2006 as a result of research conducted by a group of seasoned professionals at various levels (engineering, manufacturing, sales, and management). It is located in the New Industrial Area of Ajman. They believed that a professional-owned firm should be established with the aim of offering a variety of services with a focus on engineering services, particularly steel structures, in order to enhance the demand for engineering services. This business will be able to plan, measure, produce, and install practically any structural steel structure that can be thought of.
